

Tarrant Monkton

Roll of Honour

Transcribed by Kim Parker for the Dorset OPC Project

In Memory of Reginald BUTLER

who died at Pretoria Aug 6th 1900 while serving as Sergeant of the Gun Section 26th Company 7th Battalion
Imperial Yeomanry in the South African War
Aged 26 Years

This tablet is erected by some of his many friends as a tribute of respect for his manly Christian character and gallant devotion to his Country's service
"As a good soldier of Jesus Christ"

§§§

All Saints Tarrant Monkton with Launceston

The following Men made the Supreme Sacrifice in the Great War 1914-18

John ADAMS - Dorsets
Herbert C. BEALE - Devon Yeomanry
George FRAMPTON
Arthur TRIM - Dorsets

May they rest in Peace

Inscription on War Memorial at crossroads:

Sacred to the Memory of the Following Men from Tarrant Monkton and Launceston who gave their lives in the Great War 1914-1918

---

Tarrant Monkton Page | OPC Page